Item 8.01. Other Events.

On January 28, 2020, Martin B. Bloch, the former Chief Scientist of Frequency Electronics, Inc. (the “Company”) and a current member of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”), filed a complaint against the Company and Jonathan Brolin, Lance W. Lord, Russell M. Sarachek, Richard Schwartz and Stanton D. Sloane, each in their capacity as members of the Board (collectively, the “Director Defendants”), in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Nassau (Bloch v. Frequency Electronics, Inc., et al., Index No. 601369/2020 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. filed Jan. 28, 2020)). Mr. Bloch seeks a declaratory judgment, compensatory damages and costs and attorney’s fees, among other things, based on allegations that he was wrongfully terminated “for cause” pursuant to his employment agreement, dated March 17, 2008, and his deferred compensation agreements, in each case as amended, with the Company, that the Company’s Form 8-K, filed January 27, 2020, damaged his reputation and that the Company discriminated against him based on his age. Mr. Bloch also asserts a claim derivatively on behalf of the Company that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duty in rendering their decision to terminate Mr. Bloch’s employment with the Company. The Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Nassau, has not yet scheduled any hearings or deadlines in connection with Mr. Bloch’s complaint.

The Company and the Director Defendants believe that Mr. Bloch’s complaint is without merit and they intend to vigorously defend against the allegations presented therein.
